6,493,685	Ensel et al.	12-2002
6,813,777	Weinberger et al.	11-2004

(9) Grounds of Rejection

The following ground(s) of rejection are applicable to the appealed claims:

Claims 40-71 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. (a). This rejection is set forth in a prior Office Action, mailed on March 30, 2004. With regards to Official Notice, Weinberger is enclosed to support the Official Notice taken.

(10) Response to Argument

Applicant's Appeal Brief is noted. Upon review of Appellant's Brief the following is added. It is noted that Appellant's method claims does not use or manipulate any of the list of databases claimed. In short, the method for facilitating part qualification functions does not require the list of databases. Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co. V. Supermarket Equipment Corp., 1950, 340 US 147, 71 S.Ct. 127, 95 L.Ed. 162. "The mere aggregation of a number of old parts or elements which, in the aggregation, perform or produce no new or different function or operation than that theretofore performed or produced by them, is not patentable invention." Lincoln Engineering Co. V. Stewart Warner Corp., 1938, 303 US 545, 549, 58 S.Ct. 662, 664, 82 L.Ed. 1008. "As to the rejection of the claims on the prior art references, we do not agree with the appellant that such structural limitations as are not disclosed by the references should be given patentable weight. This argument is applicable to claims drawn to structure and not claims drawn to a method. To be entitled to such weight in method claims, the recited structural limitations therein must affect the method in a manipulative sense and not to amount to the mere claiming of a use of a particular structure, which, in our opinion, is the case here." Ex parte Pfeiffer, 135 USPQ 31 (BdPatApp&Int 1961).

The Official Notice traversal is acknowledged. Weinberger, US 6,813,77, is added as it discloses each of the various databases claimed by Appellant. It is the Examiner's position that each of these databases have been common knowledge in the art, as evidenced by Weinberger.

(11) Related Proceeding(s) Appendix
For the above reasons, it is believed that the rejections should be sustained.

Respectfully submitted,

Andrew Joseph Rudy
